Dear Sirs:-

Will you kindly send on to us 1 specimen Silver Medal commemorating the Paul Revere Sesqui-Centennial MCMXXV with your bill for the same, made out to the Committee on Library, Grand Lodge F. & A.M.

A voucher will be drawn to your order in payment of the same after the bill has been received.

For references, I would mention The Elder Coin & Curio
Company, 9 E. 35th Street, New York City, and Henry Chapman, 333 South 16th Street, Philadelphia, to whom we are well known.

If I can have the Medal by the 18th, it would be an object of interest for our guide to point out as he goes through the Museum with his sight-seeing parties.

Very truly yours,

J. E. Burnett Buckenham
Librarian and Curator.

Dear Sir:

In response to yours of the 16th, we have today mailed you a silver copy of the Paul Revere medal, and I trust that it will reach you by tomorrow morning. I am enclosing a memorandum invoice, as you request.

I was much interested in learning recently that Paul Revere was a Mason. We selected his Ride as the subject for the medal in an effort to stimulate interest in patriotic subjects. Anything that you can do to aid will be much appreciated. Thank you for your order.

Very truly yours,

Enc.
